RACE: Regatta Centre Criterium

Very cool weather tonight with an average temperature of 21 degrees. Only 3 races left in the series now and still a very good turn out of riders.

A GRADE

Nearly every rider in the race had a dig off the front. No one ended up getting clear though as the speed was high all the time. Ray Potter very nearly got away with this one - taking off about 1km from the line, everyone just letting him go til the very last minute.
