RACE: Regatta Centre Criterium

Very cool weather and a mild south easterly blowing down the back straight. A nice change from the extreme heat of the last week. Good numbers as usual in all grades.

A GRADE

Fast as usual with plenty of attacking. A number of moves slipped off the front but none stuck. All riders rode well with no-one slouching it as most of the race was a chase of one sort or another with a different group always off the front. Eddie Salas put in a hard attack half way down the back straight on the last lap and as the seconds ticked by Eddie stretched it out. Once he hit the tail wind on the home straight he sat on top speed and the bunch, strung out from the chase, never caught him.
