RACE: Regatta Centre RR

The last race of the season kicked off a bit late due to a triathlon running over time. Not a great turn out of riders, they must all be waiting for the crits to begin? Temperature was about 34 degrees by the time racing finished so it was fairly testing conditions.

A GRADE

The first 4 places are the PPCC Masters A team for the State TTT next week. Looks like they might have got some high quality training in!

B GRADE

About a dozen or so riders in B grade today with the usual culprits initiating the attacks. The attacks were quite continuous throughout the race but it wasn't until 20km to go that a group formed consisting of Jason Lindsay, Sly Zust, Peter Wakefield, Graant Bennet and Mike Stacey. It was good TTT training for 4 of these guys as they make up one of the B teams for next weeks State TTT race. They worked well and averaged around 40.5 for the remainder of the race. Peter did a flyer from the bridge and very nearly won with Jason only just getting over him.
