

Friendly and competitive cycling for all ages in Sydney's West

DATE: 2007-11-12

RACE: Regatta Centre Criterium

Much warmer and more summer-like conditions for tonight's racing. Towards the end of the racing, the wind up the back straight was pretty fresh though.

Not as fast as last week (by about 2kph), as the first few laps were quite slow. Scott Parslow and Geoff Turnbull headed off from the start and established a good lead which was out to about 400m at one stage. There was no real chase until a few laps in, when the large bunch started to haul them back. Before the catch, a counter move went with 3 in it and 2 of these ended up getting across, making 4 at the front. After a couple of laps this was down to only 2. Another lap or so and these 2 were caught. Not content with their previous efforts, the same 2 riders went on the attack again, this time with only 2.6km to go. A very fast run up the final straight kept them clear of the field.
