RACE: Regatta Centre Scratch Races

A much more civilised start time and temperature today!

A GRADE

80km

A and B grade were combined today due to only 7 starters for B grade. Pretty negative racing for the first half of the race where all breaks were chased and nullified. Things got more positive as the race got harder and a move went with Trent Butler, Andrew Payne, Nick Spratt, and 3 others. They got about 100m when Kim Parslow and Paul Connor realised this was the move and accelerated away from the bunch to bridge the gap. Stacey was last across after these two. This group of 9 worked hard for the remaining 40km averaging a bit over 41kph.

The group was down to 8 after about 15km. The pace was never comfortably constant due to the incessant accelerations by Trent Butler trying to split things up. Finally he succeeded and Andrew Payne, Nick Spratt and Paul Connor went with him with one and a half to go.

Trent won the sprint from Paul Connor and Andrew Payne with Nick Spratt in 4th. Kim Parslow jumped from the remaining group of 4 to take 5th.

Thanks to Andrew Docking for volunteering to do the organisation for today's racing
