A GRADE

80km

A pretty fast race from the gun all the way to the finish. By the half way point the bunch was already thinned down due to the constant attacking. It looked as though it was all over at one point when a strong break of 4 or 5 went away and got a good gap. The chase had lost it's punch until Phil Stokes got on the front and turned on the motorbike style effort which pulled the gap down to a bridgeable distance. The it was all back together again. With about half a lap to go Stokesy took off solo and held off the bunch for a fine win.
