B GRADE

A pretty slow old race with the first few laps taken up with riders chin wagging and chewing the fat. C grade even caught and passed us but no one seemed too perturbed until the sprint prime when an attack split the race into two catching many riders unawares. The surging continued in the front group and resulted in a few casualties until Warren Bennett and Peter Wakefield finally got clear. The usual animators finally sat up and the race slowed down to a crawl with Bennett and Wakefield stretching their lead out in the home straight to take a well deserved win.
