RACE: Hector Salas Memorial Criteriums

138 riders took to the track on a cool breezy evening for the Hector Salas Memorial race. Wind was from the SE and hence there was quite a bit of gutter action, especially in A and B.

A GRADE

This race started at a lightning pace and this was maintained throughout the whole race. Peter Milostic went on the attack from the start and there were attacks all through the race but no group could stay away. It came down to the last lap where Peter Milostic and Duncan Houston made a break and stayed in front to the finish.
