RACE: Winter Series #1 8:00am Mark Smith Memorial Day

82 riders rolled up on a very still sunny morning for racing - a great result given the clash with Mothers Day.

A GRADE

This race started at a tempo pace with 4 riders getting away early. When they were caught Peter Milostic went away for a couple of laps before being brought back. From then on there were many attempts to breakaway but none succeeded until with five laps to go a group of six riders broke away and stayed away until the finish.

PLACE	RIDER
1st	Shaun McManus
2nd	Eddie Salas
3rd	Nick Spratt
4th	David Winfield
5th	Allan Trisna

B GRADE

This race started at a good pace with riders trying to get away but none succeeded until at about the halfway point a group of three comprising Jason Lindsay, Scott Parslow and Rod Hutchinson escaped off the front. This group always looked as if they would be caught but they managed to stay away until the finish.

PLACE	RIDER
1st	Jason Lindsay
2nd	Rodney Hutchinson
3rd	Scott Parslow
4th	James Montecillo
5th	Fernando Duran

C GRADE

This grade kept their speed high which eliminated breaks until at about five laps to go the speed eased a bit and attacks started happening; this resulted in a group of seven riders getting away and staying away until the finish.

Place	Rider
1st	Peter Waldron
2nd	Alex Jackson
3rd	Glen Asquith
4th	Roddie (John) Reynolds
5th	Graeme Dippel

D GRADE

This grade rode tempo for the first half of race; at about the mid point Ray Potter broke away and stayed away. With 4 laps to go a group of three riders broke from the main bunch to give chase and these three sprinted for minor placings.

Place	Rider
1st	Ray Potter
2nd	Fil Pulido
3rd	Shayne Campbell
4th	Kai Healey
5th	Jeff Scott

E GRADE

These riders stayed together until the last lap when James Kirk attacked which caused the race to break up and the riders all finished alone.

Place	Rider
1st	James Kirk
2nd	Eric Pollock
3rd	Chris Lim
4th	Adam Callaghan
