RACE: Winter Series #3 - Points Race

On a cool sunny morning 97 riders signed on for the points race and it soon became apparent that some riders would need to re-think their race tactics, as early aggression was the name of the game.

A GRADE

This race started fast with small groups trying to get away to win the 1st sprint which was won by Eddie Salas; after that Mark Crawford broke away to win the second sprint. Then a group of about 7 riders broke away and the 3rd sprint was won by Eddie Salas. Peter Milostic then broke away from the leading group to take the final four sprints.

PLACE	RIDER
1st	Peter Milostic
2nd	Eddie Salas
3rd	Nick Spratt
4th	David Winfield
5th	Jordan Davies

B GRADE

This race started fast with Jonathan Kooy breaking away to win the first 4 sprints. He was then caught by Jason Lindsay and Jasen Douglis - these two dropped Jonathan who fell back to the pack and Jason won the next two sprints.

PLACE	RIDER
1st	Jonathon Kooy
2nd	Jason Lindsay
3rd	Jasen Douglis
4th	Stephen Cuff
5th	James Montecillo

C GRADE

This group kept a high tempo so no one could breakaway (indeed quite a few were dropped) so it came down to bunch sprints with Charlie Heuston winning the 1st and 3rd sprints and Julian Cuff winning the other three sprints.

Place	Rider
1st	Julian Cuff
2nd	Charlie Heuston
3rd	Glen Asquith
4th	Scott Spackman
5th	Mark Potter

D GRADE

This race kept a good tempo to keep the group together and to conserve energy for the sprints. This played into the hands of Carl Jackson who won all the sprints.

Place	Rider
1st	Carl Jackson
2nd	Andrew Cowley
3rd	Cameron Peters
4th	Shayne Campbell
5th	Lorenzo Zanella

E GRADE

This group kept together for the first sprint which was by won Chris Lim; after this sprint Emily Yeamans broke away to win the last 3 sprints.

Place	Rider
1st	Emily Yeamans
2nd	Chris Lim
3rd	Christian Lim
4th	Stephen Batten
5th	Eric Pollock
