RACE: Winter Series Final

A GRADE

The race started very fast with small breaks happening but all being shut down. Half way through, Penrith rider Joel Potter initiated a break which was to be joined by a small group of riders containing Cru Halliday, Ty Halliday, Jason Lindsay and Scott Reynolds. These five stayed together until second last lap when Cru Halliday attacked causing this group to split, Congrats to Cru who stayed away solo for the win.

PLACE	RIDER
1st	Cru Halliday
2nd	Joel Potter
3rd	Ty Halliday
4th	Jason Lindsay
5th	Scott Reynolds

B GRADE

The B graders had their weebix today & the race started fast with small attacks but no one was being allowed to stay away. The fast pace & constant attacking caused the group to catch the dropped riders from A grade swelling the bunch even further! The race looked destined for a bunch kick, but 2 riders managed to sneak off the front in the final Km's of race.

PLACE	RIDER
1st	Scott Parslow
2nd	Alexander Jackson
3rd	Brian Neilsen
4th	Anthony Tononcelli
5th	Silvester Zust

C GRADE

Yet again this race started with a good tempo with small attacks here & there, but all were being quickly closed down by the bunch. The race seemed destined to head towards a bunch finish, however Cameron Peters jumped away through the final corners, holding on for the win.

Place	Rider
1st	Cameron Peters
2nd	Shayne Campbell
3rd	Julian Cuff
4th	Nathan Comans
5th	Scott Spackman

D GRADE

This race was kept at a high tempo by the motivated pack. A few small breaks during the middle of race occurred, but the pack chased them all down and the race came down to a bunch finish.

Place	Rider
1st	Michael Stokes
2nd	Allan Bollins
3rd	Simon Bolton
4th	Timothy Spackman
5th	Mark McLoughlin

E GRADE

Another motivated pack allowing nothing to go up the road throughout, inevitably it stayed together until the bunch kick which was won by Chis Lim

Place	Rider
1st	Chris Lim
2nd	Stephen Batten
3rd	Christian Lim
