DATE: 2014-11-03 RACE: Hector Salas Memorial

A GRADE

The race came out of the blocks fast, the pace being kept high to stop any breaks from forming. Many riders tried to get away through out the race but none were being given more than a 100 metres. On the last lap Peter Milostic and Jason Lindsay got away and held off the fast finishing bunch across the finish

B GRADE

A great turnout in B grade meant one thing, a bunch kick was on the cards from the moment the riders rolled out. The pace was kept high throughout, & while many riders attempted to get away, eventually all were consumed back into the pack, & the resulting bunch sprint took place.

1st	Daniel Bernard
2nd	Stephen Cuff
3rd	Tom Brown

C GRADE

A Motivated pack & a blowing breeze meant the C graders started fast! With lots of surges throughout, many riders were dropped leaving the remaining bunch to fight it out for the win. A sprint finish resulted with Andy Palmer taking home the chocolates!

2nd	Philip Pidgeon
3rd	Steve McGarrity

D GRADE

Another good field of riders shared the early workload, swapping off turns to keep the pace of the race nice & high. A Couple of riders made small breaks here & there but the blowing breeze meant none were sustained and the race came down to a bunch sprint

2nd	Kai Healey
3rd	Michael Magennis
4th	Timothy Spackman

E GRADE

With a chance of a win on the cards, no one was letting a break go up the road today in E Grade. Some riders were caught out of position in the wind which blew the race apart throughout, leaving the remaining riders to fight out the sprint finish.

Place	Rider
1st	Zac Woodley
2nd	Gordon Allan
3rd	Peter Kelly
4th	Naomi Whitfield
